MARKET OUTLOOK FOR 2025

Robit expects the global mining industry demand to remain at a good level. Demand in the construction industry is expected to remain low in the first half of the year, but the demand is expected to develop positively in the second half of the year.

Possible import duties and the risk of a trade war are increasing uncertainty about the development of the market.

GUIDANCE FOR 2025

Robit expects net sales for 2025 and adjusted EBIT profitability in euros to improve from 2024.

BACKGROUND TO THE GUIDANCE

The guidance is based on the assessment that demand in the mining industry will remain at a good level and that demand in the construction industry will develop positively in the second half of 2025. The guidance is based on the assumption that there will be no significant changes in exchange rates from the level at the end of 2024, and that the possible import duties will not significantly weaken the company's relative competitiveness in key markets.

The company estimates that the development of turnover will pick up as the year progresses, although the company expects the beginning of the year to start at a low level.

CEO ARTO HALONEN

Market demand remained at a good level in the mining sector during 2024, but the expected turnaround in demand in the construction sector did not materialise. Demand in the construction industry was weak throughout the year. Demand for prospection drilling also weakened. Orders received totalled EUR 88.8 million (93.0), down by 4.4 per cent from 2023. Robit's net sales declined by 2.8 per cent to EUR 90.3 million (92.9). In a challenging market environment, we managed to grow both our Top Hammer and Geotechnical SBUs. The decline in net sales was entirely driven by Down the Hole, which suffered from weak demand in the construction industry and the expiry of a major supply contract during 2024, which could not be fully replaced with new customers.

In the last quarter of the year, the company's orders totalled EUR 19.6 million (22.3), a decrease of 12.3 per cent. Net sales for the review period were EUR 21.4 million (22.9). The company's net sales grew in the EMEA and Asia regions. In the EMEA region, the company managed to win several projects in the Geotechnical business, as well as to grow in the mining segment, especially in Africa. In addition, the company had new tunnel mining projects in both Europe and Asia. In the other market areas, net sales declined over the comparison period. Decision-making by customers was delayed in several projects. Customer demand was low in the construction, prospection drilling and well drilling segments at the end of the year.

The 2024 net sales in the Top Hammer business increased by 5.0 per cent. In the last quarter, net sales grew by 5.8 per cent. Growth was strong in the Australasia region thanks to several new customers. Net sales also increased in the EMEA region. Growth was driven in particular by underground mines. We also launched a new series of drill bits with Robit® Extreme Carbide studs, giving customers longer life and better penetration of drill bits.

Down the Hole net sales decreased by 29.1 per cent, reflecting the termination of a major supply contract, which could not be fully replaced with new customers and continued low demand in the business's key drilling and prospection segments. In the last quarter, net sales decreased by 49.9 per cent.

In the Geotechnical business, net sales grew by 4.2 per cent. In the last quarter, net sales grew by 2.8 per cent. Growth was particularly strong in the Americas region, where the company made efforts to strengthen sales. However, overall market demand in the Geotechnical segment was at a low level. We managed to win the important projects that enable us to grow, even in a weaker market.

During the year, we launched a new family of Robit® modular H-series DTH-hammers, giving customers better drilling speeds and savings in energy consumption. The product family has been well received by customers, which will allow sales to grow during 2025.

Robit's priority for 2024 was to improve profitability. We revamped the supply chain and manufacturing structure for Down the Hole products, continued to implement procurement savings projects and launched new, more competitive products. Thanks to these measures, we managed to significantly improve the Group's EBIT profitability to EUR 2.5 million (0.0). High freight costs, especially in the second and third quarters of the year, had a significant impact on the company's profitability. In the last quarter of the year, we managed to bring costs back down to a lower level, and this was positively reflected in results for the last quarter. Comparable EBIT profitability in the last quarter of the year was 3.5 per cent of net sales (3.3).

Robit's net cash flow from operations in 2024 totalled EUR 1.5 million (8.3). Improved profitability strengthened cash flow, but working capital was tied up during the year, which weakened cash flow. Inventories increased by EUR 4.2 million. Due to longer transport times, inventories were increased in order to secure deliveries to customers. The company's product availability improved towards the end of the year, which was reflected in lower freight costs. Net cash inflow from business operations for the last quarter was EUR -1.6 million (7.0). Negative cash flow was particularly affected by the decrease in accounts payable during the quarter.

During the year, we worked systematically to improve our competitiveness and renew our product range. In 2024, we managed to grow in two of our three SBUs. The main objective for 2025 is to turn the Down the Hole business back on a path of growth. We expect the market situation to remain unchanged until early 2025.

RESPONSIBILITY

Robit's sustainability work focuses on four key themes: responsible partnerships, reducing carbon dioxide emissions in the value chain, a happy and healthy workplace, and efficiency throughout the product lifecycle. We made good progress in many areas. We took a major step forward in reducing emissions intensity. In 2024, we were 39.6 per cent below the base year of 2020. The positive development was influenced by the concentration of production at fewer production facilities during 2024 and the increased use of emission-free energy sources.

1. SCOPE AND PRINCIPLES OF THE INTERIM REPORT

This financial statement release has been prepared in accordance with the IAS 34 'Interim Financial Reporting' standard using the same principles as are used in the annual financial statements. The financial statement release and interim reports have not been audited.

For reporting net sales for 2024, Robit combines the East market with the EMEA market due to the ceased business operations in Russia and the subsequent relatively small size of net sales in the East region as part of the Group's net sales.

All figures in the condensed financial statements and in the notes are rounded, which is why the sum of individual figures may deviate from the sum presented.

2.2 CONSOLIDATING ALTERNATIVE KEY FIGURES

Robit presents alternative key figures to supplement the key figures given in the IFRS-compliant consolidated profit and loss accounts, consolidated balance sheets and consolidated cash flow statements. Robit considers that the alternative figures provide significant extra insight into Robit's performance, financial position and cash flows. These figures are often used by analysts, investors and other parties.

The alternative key figures should not be examined separate from the IFRS key figures or as replacing the IFRS key figures. Not all companies calculate their alternative key figures in a uniform manner and, therefore, Robit's alternative figures may not be directly comparable to those presented by other companies, even if they carry the same headings.

The following events affect comparability: costs relating to being listed on the stock exchange and share issue, acquisition costs and business restructuring costs.

7. GOODWILL IMPAIRMENT TESTING

The amount of goodwill is reviewed at least annually in accordance with the IFRS provisions. The values of the goodwill testing variables are also revised if there have been material changes in business, competition, the market or other goodwill testing assumptions.

On 30 October 2024 and 31 December 2023, the company carried out goodwill testing for the Top Hammer, Down the Hole and Geotechnical cash flow-generating units. In connection with this testing, the company has assessed the changes in the company's operating environment and their impact on the company's long-term profitability and cash flows. Based on the impairment testing, there is no need for goodwill write-downs.

8. DERIVATIVES

The company hedges the most significant net currency positions that can be forecast for time, volume and interest rate risk.

There were no open currency derivatives at the end of the review period.

On 8 June 2021, the company concluded a EUR 30 million financing agreement and, in connection with this, a EUR 10.0 million interest rate swap with an interest rate cap in order to hedge part of its exposure to variable interest rates. The company applies hedge accounting to the interest rate swap in accordance with IFRS 9. This effectively leads to recording the interest expenses of the hedged floating rate loan at a fixed rate in the profit and loss account.

The company's main interest rate risk arises from long-term loans with floating interest rates that expose the Group's cash flow to interest rate risk. The Group's policy is to use, if necessary, a floating to fixed interest rate swap.
